MY TITUS 2 STORY

A Reflective Journal Prompt Card

Titus 2 envisions a chain of women — shaped by women — shaped by the Word.

Before you can pour into someone else, it helps to understand your own story. Use these questions to reflect quietly, pray honestly, and see where God has already been at work in your mentoring journey — and where He may be calling you next.

1. Who is an older woman who has shaped your faith or your life? What did she pass on to you — even if she never called it mentoring?

2. What has God proven faithful in your life that a younger woman needs to hear? Name a specific season, struggle, or truth.

3. Looking at Titus 2:3, which quality — reverent in behavior, not a slanderer, self-controlled — is God most actively developing in you right now?

4. Who is a younger woman already in your orbit — your church, neighborhood, family, or workplace — that you could be more intentional about investing in?

5. What is one small, specific step you could take in the next two weeks to move toward her?
